G90 MICROPHONE BASICS

MIC Button	Default Action	Notes
Spch / Lock	Nothing
Tuner / Call	Press to enable or disable the tuner.	• Press and hold to initiate the tuning action
XFC	Nothing
Tune Up / Tune Down	Tunes G90 up or down by the current tuning step size	• Holding the button down 1 second will initiate a fast tune action of about ten tuning steps per second. • If the G90 Tune button is pressed to enable the 100 KHZ tuning rate, then pressing and holding one of these buttons will zip along • These buttons may also be reprogrammed in the system menu to select from: Freq CH +/-, Band +/-, or Volume +/-
V/M	Toggle between VFO or memory action
MW	Nothing
F1	Press to select Attenuator, Preamp or nothing	• This button may also be reprogrammed in the system menu to select from: PRE/ATT, SPLT (Split operation), NB (noise blanker), COMP (speech compressor), or AGC
F2	Press to enable or disable the split mode operation	• This button may also be reprogrammed in the system menu to select from: PRE/ATT, SPLT (Split operation), NB (noise blanker), COMP (speech compressor), or AGC
MODE	Press to select operating mode
FIL	Nothing
GENE	Nothing
Numeric Keypad	Press a key to directly tune to the indicated band (160 to 10 meters)	• Will either tune to the last frequency used on the selected band or the beginning frequency of the selected band
F-INP / ENT	Toggles the main numeric keypad to allow keying in a frequency.	• Press the button • Enter MM.KKK format .. use the decimal • Entering just the MM part will tune to that whole megahertz frequency • Press again to complete the entry and tune to that frequency • CE clears the entry to allow reentering	